rdained priests.

Large crowds from Alexandria attended Large crowds from Alexandria attended the services, as also did many from all sections of the State. Carryalis were kept busy all the morning with their loads. The sermon (as all of Blahop Newton's cloquent discourses always are) was highly enjoyed. The day was an ideal one, fair and sunny, and altogether the ordination service at the seminary, apart from its deeper signification, was something to be long remembered.

WITHOUT A NOMINATION.

The Republican Convention at Weldon Went to Pieces at 3 A. M. WELDON, N. C., June 29 .- (Special.)

The convention went to pieces yesterday morning at 3 o'clock on the thirteent! In many respects it was one of the most remarkable Republican gatherings In many respects it was one of the most remarkable Republican gatherings on record. From the beginning the White and Cheatham factions had blood in their cyes, and they fought to the end, each side dying game. Both men claim this morning that they are nominated, and this virtually places the district in the hands wirtually places the district in the hands of the Democrats. White led on the first ballot with 11—necessary to a choice. 13. On the fifth or sixth ballot he received 12, but, alas! he still lacked one, and no power or argument could bring that lacking delegate to his aid. Just before the convention broke up in confusion White mounted the rostrum and in unmeasured terms he denounced the white Republicans of Lenoir, Wayne, and other countles had determined to throttle the will of 16,000 negro voters (there are not that many negro voters in this district), and that they were doing all they could to handicap the Republican party and thus elect a Democrat to Congress. He also touched up the Thirdites, and said if the Populists desired coalition they must go to the Republican party. "For," he said, "your little camp is too small to ask us bride is a first cousin of the Messrs. to the Republican party. "For," he said,
"your little camp is too small to ask us into, and you are too young. You must come to us, we cannot go to you."
And that is the sentiment of the leading Republicans, Butler, Skinner, Kitchia, and others, who expect the Republicans to help them defeat the Democrats, will now sit down in sackcloth and ashes. The negroes in this district are hope-lessly divided, and the leaders of the Cheatham faction said to the leaders of negro charged with murder, who has been on his trial in the County Court of been on his trial in the County Court of this (Brunswick) county since Tuesday last, brought in a verdict against him Friday of murder in the first degree. Bradley is a man of desperate character and turbulent disposition. On the 23d day of December last he and one Edward White (colored) had a dispute over a pair of brass knuckles which Bradley had lent him, but which had been lost. Bradley demanded that the knuckles be produced, in default of which he declared his purpose to kill the borrower. White was unable to produce them, but offered to pay whatever Bradley thought was a fair price. He declined to accept pay, and proceeded to carry his threat into execution by shooting White in the back while he was endeavoring to get beyond the reach of danger. The ball from Bradley's pistol struck his victim, and inflicted a wound from which he died after a few days of intense suffering. Bradley was indicted and tried at the March term of the Counter of the cou from which he died after a few days of intense suffering. Bradley was indicted and tried at the March term of the County Court, and was convicted of murder in the first degree. His counsel applied to the Circuit Court for a writ of error, which was granted, and a new trial awarded him. The trial just ended made it plain beyond all question or doubt that the killing was wilful, deliberate, and premeditated, and the verdict of the jury is approved by the entire community. The Commonwealth was represented by Mr. E. P. Buford and the defence by Mr. A. S. Lee.

HARRY BRADLEY CONVICTED.
